

SetClientID Identify this client to search and complement procedures

#include <Quickdraw.h>

Color Manager

void SetClientID(id);

short id ; identity number of client program

SetClientID sets the gdID field in the device record so that its search and complement procedures will recognize this particular client program.

id is the client program being given identification

Returns: none